Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies

BULLETIN No. 6

Now that our Trail Riders have recovered from Christmas and New Year festivities, their attention naturally turns to plans for next Summer. This bulletin, therefore, draws the curtain on a prospect which we trust will prove pleasing. All the details have not yet been worked out, but the general plan is to have two Official Trail Rides, one for those who wish to take it easy and who may not have more than three days to spare, and one for fairly well-hardened Trail Riders who do not object to covering twenty miles a day and who have five days at their disposal. These two Official Trail Rides will be timed so that both parties will spend the last night in camp together in the Ptarmigan Valley on a broad level bench which commands a highly spectacular view of the group of mountains enclosing Lake Louise, of Mount Temple and the Valley of the Ten Peaks. This camp would be only nine miles from the Chateau Lake Louise, so that those with still less time to spare could ride out from there for the last night's camp. The five-day ride would include Bow Pass, which is on one of the main trails south from Jasper, and our hope is to be able to time the two Trail Rides so as to coincide with that of a party which is expected to ride down from Jasper. This means that the dates will probably be shortly after the Indian Days at Banff towards the end of July. The Indian Days themselves come about a week after the Calgary Stampede, which is scheduled for July 5-10, so that July will be a red-letter month for those who have time to see and enjoy the West at its best.

The map on the third page of this bulletin visualises the proposed routes, and the photographs reproduced illustrate some of the scenery en route. Future bulletins will give further particulars as to dates and cost. The latter will be kept down to the lowest possible consistent with comfort and good catering. The success of the 1925 Trail Ride was largely due to the comfortable camp arrangements, and these we hope to be able to repeat and perhaps even improve upon with our enlarged experience.

Looking West along the Molar Pass on the Five-day Trail Ride.

The correspondence received by the Secretary indicates that the attendance on the Trail will be considerably larger than that of last year, when our difficulty was to provide the necessary number of horses. We may find it necessary this year to place a time limit on reservations, as it is impossible to produce suitable horses for these long distance Trail Rides at short notice.

ens under the supervision of the Park Superintendent at Banff. Yoho Park has 151.5 miles; Glacier Park 151.5 and Kootenay 81 miles. Add to these the mileage in Jasper National Park and the innumerable trails linked up with and continuing the trails within the Parks and you find that there are easily 2,000 miles of trail within the territory covered by our official chart.

"The Glittering Mountains of Canada" is an attractive book by one of our Trail Riders, Dr. J. Monroe Thorington, just published by John W. Lea, 1520 North Robinson Street, Philadelphia. Profusely illustrated with maps and spectacular photographs, taken by Dr. Thorington during his explorations and pioneer ascents in the Canadian Rockies over a period of ten years, this book deals with the territory adjacent to the two railroads and also with the vast area of peaks and passes between them. It is written by one who has been there, and should be of particular interest to Alpine climbers.

(Price $4.50)

Itinerary of the two Official Trail Rides proposed for next July

1—A three-day ride starting from the Banff-Lake Louise road, near Castle, up Johnstone Creek and Baker Creek and dropping down through the Ptarmigan Valley to Lake Louise. Mileage, 14 miles each day first two days, and nine (9) miles on third day.

2—A five-day ride starting from Lake Louise, up the Bow River to Mosquito Creek; then side trip past Bow Lake to Bow Pass; then over Molar Pass and up the Little Pipestone with a possible side trip up the Skoki Valley; then along the same trail as the three-day ride past Baker Lake and Ptarmigan Lake through the Ptarmigan Valley back to Lake Louise. Mileage about twenty (20) miles each day first four days, and nine (9) miles on fifth day. This ride will be limited to those holding silver or higher grade of button, or to those who can satisfy the Committee of Guides that they are hard enough to stand the trip.

Bow Pass is traversed by one of the trails connecting Jasper with Lake Louise.
